

HBA of Central Missouri, Missouri
Home Show Rules & Regulations
Revised October, 2020

The Rules and SHOW MANAGEMENT:

The Home Show (the “Show”) is a presentation of the CENTRAL MISSOURI BUILDING INDUSTRIES ASSOCIATION d/b/a the HOME BUILDERS ASSOCIATION OF CENTRAL MISSOURI. The Home Show Committee shall have the right to make such rules and regulations, from time to time, as it shall deem advisable to ensure the success of the Show. Each participant (“Exhibitor”), together with its employees and representatives, shall be bound to follow such rules and regulations as a condition of the right to exhibit its products and/or services at the Show in the space reserved by the Exhibitor. The Show staff’s application, interpretation and construction of said rules and regulations shall be final and conclusive.

CHARACTER OF EXHIBITS:

Applications are subject to approval by the HBA Home Show Committee. Each Exhibitor agrees to display only products or services that are sold by it in its regular course of business. Non-HBA member exhibitors are limited to professional general building contractors and the trades and businesses that support them. It is the purpose of the HBA Home Show Committee, and understood by the Exhibitor, that only pertinent products and services that pertain to the field of home building, modernizing, decorating, major furnishing & major recreation, landscaping or closely related to these fields of activity shall be displayed, demonstrated and explained. All HBA members in good standing may participate in our show. The Show Committee reserves the right to reject any exhibit, or part thereof, which is not in keeping with the character and spirit of the Show.

CONTINGENCIES:

The Home Show Committee reserves the right to cancel this contract in the event the Committee concludes it is in the best interest of the HBA, the Show and/or for reasons of safety. While the Committee can make the decision to cancel for any reason; generally cancellation will be used in situations where the facilities for the show are unfit due to damage, adverse weather conditions, public health concerns (there or not a governmental order is in place), or circumstances beyond the control of the HBA and the Home Show Committee. In such events, the HBA shall not generally refund any payments for the Show; it being expressly understood that such payments are applied to expenses relating to the Show upon receipt. The HBA and the Home Show Committee are expressly released of any and all claims for damages, actual, consequential or otherwise, sustained or incurred by Exhibitor by reason of such cancellation. In lieu of cancellation, the HBA and the Home Show Committee reserve the right, in their sole discretion, to conduct the Show in an alternative format by Zoom or other similar web event. In such event, Exhibitors remained bound to participate in the manner prescribed by the HBA and the Home Show Committee.

PAYMENT:

All booths must be paid in full by the date designated by the Home Show Committee. Full Payment is required for all booths once the advertising has begun even if Exhibitor chooses to pull out of show for any reason.

INSTALLATION AND REMOVAL OF EXHIBITS:

- (a) All exhibits shall remain in place and shall NOT be dismantled, physically or electronically in the event of a web-based event format, until the official closing of the Show. There will be a $250 penalty fee for tear down prior to the end of the Show. Violators will be notified by letter, billed $250 within 10 days of the show, and will forfeit the opportunity for booth space for the following year.
- (b) All exhibits, displayed products, and other material and property of the Exhibitor must be removed, or taken down immediately after the official closing of the Show within the times designated as “Exhibitor load-out” unless special permission from the Home Show Committee has been granted.
- (c) Exhibitors may begin load-in NO EARLIER than time designated by Load-in/Load-out Committee. All booths and contents MUST be in place one hour prior to the start of the Show. All exhibits must remain up throughout the Show and MUST be removed or taken down at your designated Load-out time. You are required to provide sufficient manpower and other resources necessary to Load-in and Load-out your booth within your assigned time.

BOOTH RENTAL, ASSUMING A LIVE, IN-PERSON FORMAT INCLUDES:

- No Exhibitor shall assign, sub-let or apportion the space or any part of the space allotted to it, nor exhibit any goods, apparatus, services, advertising, signs, etc., other than those manufactured or sold by the Exhibitor in the regular course of its business, without the written consent of the Home Show Committee. The Home Show Committee does allow authorized Exhibitors to share booth space. However, all vendors represented in the booth must be named on the Home Show booth application. Exhibitors shall be limited to a maximum of eight (8) booths in order to allow for further diversified growth of our Show. Printed advertising, souvenirs, etc., may be distributed by Exhibitors from their own space only. Any souvenir or advertising that is of an objectionable or undignified character will not be permitted. Souvenirs should not be of a noise-making variety. All such items are subject to the approval of the Home Show Committee. Absolutely NO distribution of materials of any kind or solicitation shall be permitted by any entity that is not an authorized Exhibitor.
- Exhibitors shall not sell food or beverages. Exhibitors dispensing food or beverages shall be responsible for ensuring the cleanliness of their space throughout the Show and shall ensure that any such food and beverage is distributed in accordance with applicable law, including any City ordinances. The HBA reserves the right to prohibit or further regulate the dispensing of food and beverages to protect the public health, including but not limited to prohibiting any dispensing of food or beverages or restricting the manner in which food and beverages may be dispensed, e.g. authorizing the dispensing only of separately, prepackaged beverages and food, or requiring the taking of other sanitary measures.
- Exhibitors, when mandated by the HBA or the government to promote public health shall certify that each individual operating their booths have first certified the following to them in writing:

Neither the Capital Mall, its staff nor the HBA, the Home Show Committee, or any of its authorized representatives (the “Released Parties”) shall be responsible for an Exhibitor’s booth or its contents. THE RELEASED PARTIES SHALL NOT BE LIABLE TO EXHIBITOR, ITS OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, MANAGERS, EMPLOYEES, AGENTS, GUESTS, OR OTHER PERSONS AT THE SHOW FOR OR ON BEHALF OF EXHIBITOR, FOR INJURY TO ANY SUCH PERSON, NOR FOR LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO PROPERTY (INCLUDING PROPERTY OF EXHIBITOR) OCCURRING IN OR ABOUT THE FACILITIES FROM ANY CAUSE WHATSOEVER, UNLESS CAUSED BY THE GROSS NEGLIGENCE OF HBA. .

Further, HBA shall not be liable to Exhibitor, including its employees or their officers, directors, employees, agents, guests, or other persons at the Show for, on behalf of , or at the invitation of Exhibitor, for any injuries to persons or damage to personal property caused by any public health issue, water, rain, snow, frost, fire, storm and accident, or by breakage, stoppage, or leakage of water, gas, heating and sewer pipes, or plumbing upon, about or adjacent to the facilities, unless caused by the gross negligence of HBA.

Exhibitor expressly agrees to indemnify, release and hold harmless the Released Parties from any and all liability for any loss, injury or damage to persons or property that may be sustained by reason of the Exhibitor’s Participation in the Show.

INSURANCE:

It is the responsibility of the Exhibitor to maintain such insurance as is appropriate for Exhibitor’s participation in the Show, including, but not limited to, liability insurance. Proof of Insurance must be faxed or mailed to the HBA office prior to the show.

CARE OF EXHIBIT SPACE:

- Each Exhibitor must keep his own space cleaned and his exhibit in good order while the show is open to the public. Must remove own trash off site other than what will fit in trash can provided.
- The HBA reserves the right to impose additional cleaning requirements to promoting public health and to require adherence to all governmental requirements relating to the protection of public health.
- Any vendor using a display with rocks, bricks, pavers or blocks will need to have some plywood under it to support the weight. There is asphalt under the carpet and it will indent if the weight is not spread out.

- Sawing of any materials inside the building must be pre -approved.
- Clean-up of dirt, saw dust, wood chips, sand and water, etc. is the sole responsibility of the vendor. If there is a spill of water in a booth, it needs to be mopped up immediately. Water standing under the vinyl cover, but on top of hardwood may cause permanent damage.
- Small rock parts from roofing displays may pierce through the seams of the vinyl cover and permanently scratch the floor. Please watch carefully that this doesn't happen.
- Page and Brown Convention Services shall only be responsible for maintaining the aisles and public areas and dumping of the trash cans.
- Failure to abide by clean-up rules is subject to the same penalty as early tear-down of booths. ($250 penalty fee to be billed in writing 10 days of the show and forfeit booth space for the following year).
- Vendors responsibility to remove all sold items after show. Nothing is to be left at the Capital Mall after the Show. All sold items must be picked up at the vendors location. (Not at the Capital Mall)
- Break down boxes before placing them in them in dumpster NO Foam!
- Venders late on booth removal need to move items to load out areas so clean up may begin.

MISCELLANEOUS EXHIBIT & SHOW REGULATIONS

No Alcoholic beverages of any kind will be served or permitted on the Capital Mall premises without previous permission from the HBA and Capital Mall.

The Capital Mall is a smoke-free facility. No smoking will be permitted anywhere on the premises.

RULES COMMITTEE:

Members from the Home Show Committee will also serve as a Rules Committee. The rules Committee will be responsible for controlling all activities of the Show. This will include ensuring that all Exhibitors are within their space allotment, Exhibitors are following the rules set by the Home Show Committee and the facility, making sure that no Exhibitor tears down early and for controlling the overall atmosphere of the Show.

AMENDMENTS:

The Home Show Committee has full power to interpret or amend these rules, with or without notice to Exhibitors. When possible, the Committee will attempt to notify Exhibitors, either verbally or in writing, of any rules changes. The Home Show

Committee reserves the right to make rules which it deems in the best interest of the Show, and the Exhibitor agrees to accept and abide by such rules.
